

Headlines

February has arrived and it is hard to believe that we have nearly reached half term. This week, we have joined in a national initiative for 'Children's Mental Health Week'. Being healthy in body and mind is a key part of our learning programme at Collingwood and it has been fantastic to see the discussions and activities taking place around the school, which show that the children have an understanding that it is so important to talk about how we are feeling to a trusted adult. Our 'Inside Out Day' yesterday proved to be a very worthwhile venture and a very deserving new charity too.

Today, both Year 3 and Year 4 have been out on trips into London to the Natural History Museum and the Science Museum. They have been really looking forward to these events as they enhance their learning in their class topics and I know they will have had a great experience.

We have also been treated to an assembly with Year 6 this morning. From the sustainability of Coca Cola bottles to Brazilian culture to spreading kindness, the assembly had everything. Year 6 were also lucky enough to have a visit from former Collingwood parent and storyteller extraordinaire, Andy Coppin, who came in with a surprise story for the Oak class children. Many of you will remember Andy as the speaker at our Prize Giving in the Summer; we are lucky to have such a talent as a friend of the school.

A busy week indeed! In the meantime, I wish you all a wonderful weekend and I hope that we don't get blown around too much by the approaching Storm Clara in the process!

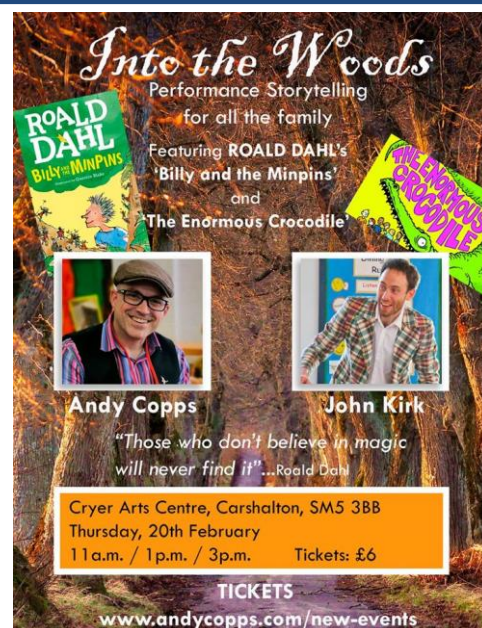

Mr Leigh Hardie, Head

Lost Property

Could you please check that your child has not accidentally picked up the wrong uniform. There are a number name labelled items currently missing. We recommend labelling all items of uniform with sew in labels which tend to be more robust.

Lost Property

Collingwood will be celebrating World Book Day on Thursday 5th March with a fun filled theme day. We are asking the children dress up as a book character and look forward to seeing their costume ideas!
