What a lovely end to the week (and nearly the year!) with this morning's Year 6 awards and leavers' assembly. Our children at the top of the school entertained us with their memories of Collingwood life, their best bits and they even threw in some limericks and portraits of teachers too! I will certainly put mine up in my room – thanks Rafael. We also presented Year 6 with their Collingwood Way Gold Awards for the projects they have carried out over the whole year to put our Six C's into action. Yesterday, we also gave the silver awards to Year 5, who have also been working on these over the whole year as evidence of commitment to their own personal development while they are in school. Both classes can now wear their special badge with pride on their blazers.

Earlier in the week, we had a visit from the Zoo Lab, educating the children in Reception, Year 1 and 2 with minibeasts and other creatures. The children had a chance to hold and touch a giant millipede, a giant snail, a snake, a rat, a cockroach to name a few. What a great experience for them all.

The undoubted highlight of the week was of course our Summer Music Concert. We witnessed a great range of music from all the age groups – our choirs, the rock band, ukulele group, Year 3 Strings, Year 2 recorder group, Year 6 'School of Rock'. Miss Andrews has done a fantastic job in preparing the children to such an impressive standard and coordinating this event too. We really appreciate her dedication to music in this school and I know that all the parents in the audience really loved the performances too. A thank you to our PSA for running the outside bar again too.

The biggest event for our PSA is coming up tomorrow with our Summer Fair. We hope to see as many of you there as possible to support in this fun day. We also look forward to seeing many parents again next Wednesday at our Prize Giving at Holy Trinity Church from 10.30am. Have a lovely weekend!
